MEET NICOLE

When Nicole planned her own wedding, she realised just how much she would've benefitted from having "a Nicole" by her side—someone to keep things calm, organised and truly enjoyable. That experience inspired her to create The Wedding Hand: a friendly, professional helping hand for couples who want to savour every moment of their journey from "yes" to "I do." With a background in project and event management, Nicole brings structure and serenity to the excitement of wedding planning. Her mission is simple—to be the support she once needed, so you can celebrate your day with confidence, ease, and joy.

THE WEDDING HAND

LUCY & MANI

Unbelievable.

Nicole is nothing short of incredible. From the beginning she guided us, supported us and hyped us up! Always on hand for advice, encouragement and provided the the best spreadsheet! When it came to the day we had zero worries, Nicole had it under control, we had no worries arriving from church to know everything would run week, kept us hydrated, and made sure our day was unforgettable ❤️ the best money we spent ❤️

LUCY & MANI'S VILLAGE HALL WEDDING

Lucy and Mani's wedding was a vibrant celebration of two families, two cultures, and pure joy. Set in a welcoming village hall, the day brought together Lucy's Merseyside roots and Mani's Nigerian heritage, creating an atmosphere filled with colour, warmth, and excitement. From lively music to bold décor and heartfelt moments, every part of the day honoured who they are both separately and together.

Their menu was a standout feature — an incredible Nigerian BBQ prepared by a caterer not typically used to weddings or working within a small kitchen space. This created a few unexpected delays, but I worked closely with the catering team to get food out as efficiently as possible, keeping guests happy. I also coordinated with the MC to keep the atmosphere upbeat and guests entertained while everything came together behind the scenes.

Another key part of the day was the series of outfit changes and makeup top-ups, each designed to bring a burst of excitement and celebration. I managed the timing and transitions, ensuring every re-entry into the room felt smooth, energetic, and perfectly timed. The result was a wedding full of fun, flavour, and cultural pride — a joyful, unforgettable day where guests were continuously entertained and the couple were free to enjoy every moment.

The best thing I did for my wedding was hire Nicole The Wedding Hand ★★★★★

Where do I even begin? From the very first moment we spoke she was nothing but incredible. She's kind, patient and so genuinely helpful. No question was ever too small, no detail too much trouble. She just got it.

But it was on the day itself Nicole truly shone. She was incredible, making sure everything ran smoothly, handling things quietly in the background before I even realised they needed handling. It felt like having another bridesmaid there, or honestly, a close friend who just happened to know exactly how to run a wedding like a total pro. She brought a lovely, calming energy to the day, and I am so grateful for her being there.

I genuinely can't imagine how it would have gone without her. Thank you so much, Nicole, from the bottom of my heart. You were a dream. ❤️
